

Sunday 10th January

We have taken the decision to cancel sailing on Sunday 10th January due to the adverse weather conditions we are experiencing. The country roads leading to the club are deep in snow and the lake is completely frozen over.

Please keep checking the website for further updates